

Budget	1. Lead introduces A+B	Flemish Fence
Walking Patrols	The Falconville City Council Wednesday night approved (A) a request by a local business to keep a loading dock that was built in violation of city code, but (B) turned down a private couple’s request to keep a fence it also built in violation of code. (I don’t particularly like this lead because of its length, but it is a start.)	Loading Dock
Senior Citizens		Conley Request
Coast Guard Proc.		Parking Ordinance
City Administrator	2. Brief Summary of A (A)The council was not happy with Hank Thompson of National Cold Storage, who finished construction after the city had “red tagged” the project, but agreed to let the business keep the dock anyway.	Sister City
	3. Brief Summary of B (B) But in another action, the council refused to let Joel and Lottie Flemish, address, keep an 8-foot fence they built without a permit. The fence exceeds the 6-foot limit established by city ordinance.	Falconville Gala
	4. Introduce C-Z In other business the council: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (C) Adopted a budget for next fiscal year that is down from last year. As a result, the budget reflects major cuts in programs offered the city. • (D) Approved a new city administrator form of government and appointed Joan Bell as the city’s first city administrator. • (E) Turned down a request by a local couple to waive garbage collection fee. • (F) Argued over a controversial parking plan for part of downtown. • (G) Welcomed Malsch, Germany as Falconville's new sister city.

- (H) Approved a controversial plans for next month's Falconville Gala that will see Gala activities split between two city parks this year and the elimination of the annual carnival.
- (I) Declared July 9 as "Safe Boating Week" in Falconville, despite city plans to eliminate safe boating classes.
- (J) Congratulated the city staff bowling team for winning its league season.

5. More of A

6. More of B

A one-paragraph version of Step 4

In other business the council adopted a budget for next fiscal year that is down from last year, approved a new city administrator form of government, turned down a request by a local couple to waive garbage collection fees, talked about a controversial parking plan for part of downtown, adopted a German city as its new sister city, approved controversial plans for next month's Falconville Gala, and declared the week of July 9 as "Safe Boating Week" in Falconville.